Call to Worship

HYMN 68: O thou, my soul, bless God the Lord

O.T. Reading: Isaiah 49: 8-16 Restoration of Jerusalem p. 715

Prayer of approach to God

HYMN (MP 452):

(repeat last two lines of each verse)

Loved with everlasting love,
led by grace that love to know;
Spirit, breathing from above,
thou hast taught me it is so.
O this full and perfect peace!
O this transport all divine!
In a love which cannot cease
I am his, and he is mine.

Heaven above is brighter blue,
earth around is sweeter green;
Something lives in every hue,
Christless eyes have never seen:
Birds with gladder songs o'erflow,
flowers with deeper beauties shine,
since I know, as now I know,
I am his, and he is mine.

His for ever, only his:
Who the Lord and me shall part?
Ah, with what a rest of bliss
Christ can fill the loving heart!
Heaven and earth may fade and flee,
first-born light in gloom decline;

N.T. Reading: John 14: 18-25 Promise of the Holy Spirit p. 138

Prayers

Pray for all who are homeless, remembering especially young people living on our streets for whatever reason.
Pray for people who have served in the armed forces and have been unable to adjust to life outside that environment and are now homeless. Pray for all organisations and charities which help homeless people.

Pray for all who live with, or in fear of any form of domestic violence. Pray that they will find the courage to seek help for their families, for themselves and even for the abusers

Pray that God will help us to be more patient and understanding with those we meet in our daily lives. We do not know all of their problems, worries or fears.
